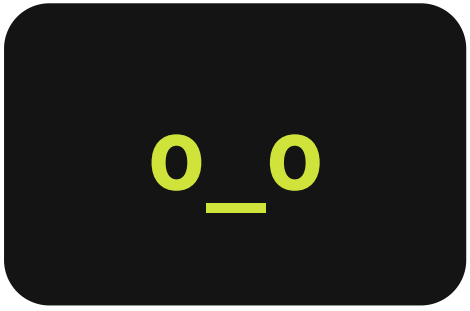
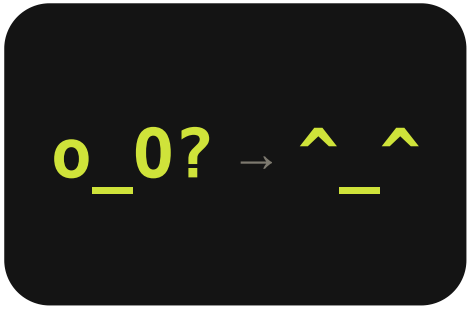
Show me something.
I'll look out for it.

No buttons. Just come close and play.



1 Come close

I wake up and keep my eyes on you.



2 Hold it up

Show me anything you carry. I lean in, work out what it is, and nod. Now I'm looking out for it.

3 Hide it

Put it away for a few seconds, then bring it back. When I spot it, I point at it and call you.

4 Pat my head

I push up into your hand. When I'm calling, a touch tells me you've seen it.

-_- zz Asleep? Pat my head to wake me.

New object, new job: the last thing shown is the one I look for.
